

Student Helpers Wanted for Field Work in 2026

Within the Biodiversity Exploratories (DFG) under the direction of the Chair for Terrestrial Ecology (TU Munich) insect communities are sampled in forests of different management intensities in three regions of Germany.

We are looking for motivated students with a driver's license and driving experience to support the sampling on multi-day field trips from February to October 2026 (for dates see second page).

If you are interested, please contact

Irina Pavlova
irina.pavlova@tum.de

Technische Universität München
Lehrstuhl für Terrestrische Ökologie
Hans-Carl-von-Carlowitz-Platz 2
85354 Freising-Weihenstephan